WELCOME

WE'RE HANDING THE REINS OVER TO YOU THIS YEAR, GIVING YOU THE CHANCE TO CHOOSE YOUR OWN PATH THROUGH THE MASSIVE 2017 PROGRAM. WHILE SOME PARTS MAY BE FAMILIAR, THERE ARE A FEW MORE FORKS IN THE ROAD YOU CAN CHOOSE TO TAKE, BUT REST ASSURED, THEY ALL LEAD TO ADVENTURE.

For 2017, we've simplified the program into four streams: Beer Lover, Foodie, Beer Geek, and Good Times. Pint of Origin is back and bigger than ever, while you'll also find exciting new elements such as our Smudge Eats Menu presented by Mountain Goat, our Good Beer Mates events with special brewing guests from Portland, the Gage Roads Burger Challenge, and a revamped Beer School, presented by Boatrockers Brewing Co.

So, which page will you be turning to?

CHOOSE YOUR OWN ADVENTURE

THE TEAM HERE AT GOOD BEER WEEK IS FIRMLY OF THE BELIEF THAT BEER RELATED ADVENTURES ARE THE BEST KIND OF ADVENTURES. SO WHEN THE TIME CAME TO CHOOSE THE THEME FOR THE 2017 FESTIVAL, IT BECAME CLEAR THAT EVERY SINGLE PERSON WHO ATTENDS GOOD BEER WEEK FINDS THEIR OWN PATH THROUGH THE HUNDREDS OF EVENTS (AND BEERS) IN THE PROGRAM.

Add in a dose of nostalgia of the literary kind, and Choose Your Own Adventure became our call to action for 2017. This year's festival once again features more than 250 events all across Melbourne and Victoria, promising plenty of opportunity to find your own path.

When choosing your week's adventures, it might be through the medium of food, music, sports, education, networking, or, of course, beer. Every route taken is valid, and every route comes with its own highlights and diversions.

Importantly, the emphasis here is on adventure, rather than the beer itself. Good Beer Week has always been about so much more than just beer, and that continues in 2017, with an incredible program stuffed with opportunities for fine dining, live music, learning, meeting people such as our international guests from Portland, and, should you wish it, a little bit of an escape from the outside world for a few days.

I'd like to thank all our venues, breweries, sponsors, partners and most importantly the attendees for helping make the adventures of thousands of beer lovers possible. See you out there.

GOOD BEER WEEK

FOR THOSE OF US LUCKY ENOUGH TO BE PART OF THE MELBOURNE BEER SCENE, GOOD BEER WEEK IS OUR OLYMPICS. IT'S DISNEYLAND. IT'S BOTH A MARATHON AND A SPRINT. AND IT'S A HELL OF A LOT OF FUN.

Good Beer Week is now a major player in Melbourne's food and drink calendar, and a world renowned event in its own right, and our own proud association with it runs deep. The GABS Beer, Cider & Food Fest began in the same year and now attracts more than 18,000 people. The Local Taphouse has run many GBW events in what is always one of our busiest weeks, and our new Stomping Ground Brewery & Beer Hall is hosting its first GBW events this year.

With such an impressive smorgasbord of events happening all over Melbourne during Good Beer Week, there truly is something for everyone. So make the most of it and we hope to share a beer with you along the journey. Cheers!

THE OREGON BREWERS GUILD IS HONOURED TO PARTNER WITH GOOD BEER WEEK IN SHOWCASING OREGON BREWERIES WITH A CURATED SELECTION OF BEERS FROM AROUND THE STATE. TO HAVE OREGON CHOSEN AS THE FIRST BEER REGION FOR THE GOOD BEER MATES INITIATIVE IS A HUGE PRIVILEGE, AND WE'RE PROUD TO SHOWCASE JUST WHAT OREGON CAN OFFER BEER LOVERS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Our 230 Oregon brewing companies and their associated venues welcome approximately 12 million visitors a year, taking the beer industry's total economic impact on Oregon's to an incredible $4.49 billion, while also employing 31,000 Oregonians. We are proud of what Oregon does for beer, and of what beer does for Oregon.

We hope our involvement in Good Beer Week offers a little taste of the beer scene here in the US, and that we can welcome more and more Australian beer lovers to our beeriest cities in the coming years. For a list of breweries to visit or events to attend while you're in Oregon, check out www.oregoncraftbeer.org.

OREGON BREWERS GUILD

AS THE WORLD'S LARGEST ANNUAL BEER COMPETITION JUDGING BOTH DRAUGHT AND PACKAGED BEER, THE AUSTRALIAN INTERNATIONAL BEER AWARDS (AIBA) IS DELIGHTED TO BE A FESTIVAL SUPPORTER OF GOOD BEER WEEK (GBW).

Celebrating 25 years of recognising the world's best beers across a diverse range of styles, the AIBA is conducted annually by The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria.

Attracting over 1700 entries in 2016, judging for the AIBA takes place in the lead up to GBW, with an impressive line-up of respected beer industry experts from across the globe descending on Melbourne to assess the entries and award up to 30 Champion Trophies.

The AIBA features in two events during Good Beer Week, the AIBA Presentation Dinner where this year's Champion Breweries and Beers will be announced, as well as the return of a stand at GABS, Beer, Cider and Food Fest where patrons will have the opportunity to try some of this year's newly-crowned beers.

Our congratulations to the GBW team and Australian beer industry on a successful event - 'the best beer week in the world' - celebrating this exciting industry. We encourage you all to sample the exceptional 2017 AIBA award-winning beers during Good Beer Week!

PINT OF ORIGIN IS BACK! AND, IN 2017, THE GOOD BEER WEEK STREAM THAT SHOWCASES THE BEST BEERS FROM AUSTRALIA AND THE WORLD BY TAKING OVER THE TAPS AT MANY OF MELBOURNE'S BEST BEER VENUES IS SPROUTING NEW TENTACLES.

We've shuffled the pack, added new venues and have even created a mini-PoO circuit south of the Yarra as craft beer finally starts to take hold there. In recognition of the sheer volume of great beer available, Melbourne / Victoria and Sydney / New South Wales are split across two pubs each, while Europe's brewers get three.

There's even a "Pint of No Origin" for the first time featuring gypsy brewers and the brewers of Victoria's southwest will be represented at Blackman's Brewery Bar in Geelong. Look out for awesome PoO-themed events at individual venues too.

Once again, there will be special deals for members of The Crafty Cabal beer lovers bonus scheme as well as Crafty Pint hosted, pop-up brewer shouts. Follow #PoO17 on social media to keep in touch with all the latest.

BREWS NEWS Q&A

CRYER MALT TRADE HUB UPSTAIRS BEER DELUXE

Beer is a conversation and Australian Brews News is at the forefront of that discussion. Join us for a series of thought-provoking discussion panels looking at the important issues in the beer world. These interactive discussions will tackle some of the big - but often unspoken - issues affecting Australian brewers.

Discussions will look at The Sustainability of Craft in which we will look at how many craft breweries founded on the cause of good beer have grown their businesses infusing them with a wider set of values. This panel will look at what these breweries have done, but more importantly why and whether, as the beer market has evolved and become more crowded, having a cause other than good beer is important to the sustainability of small breweries. This panel will feature Ken Grossman, CEO Sierra Nevada, Kiera Murphy, Sustainability Manager, 4 Pines Brewery. Other panels will look at the growing skills shortage in the brewing industry and we will also ask the question is the beer bubble about to burst?

GOOD BEER MATES

SUPPORTED BY

WHAT'S A GOOD BEER ADVENTURE WITHOUT A FEW OF YOUR MATES?

FOR THE FIRST TIME, GOOD BEER WEEK HAS INVITED A GROUP OF INTERNATIONAL BREWERS TO JOIN US HERE IN MELBOURNE FOR THE FESTIVAL AS OUR FIRST OFFICIAL GOOD BEER MATES.

WITH PORTLAND, OREGON REGULARLY RECOGNISED AS ONE OF THE WORLD'S LEADING BEER DESTINATIONS, IT SEEMED ONLY NATURAL THAT OUR FIRST GOOD BEER MATES SHOULD HAIL FROM THERE. HUGE THANKS TO THE OREGON BREWERS GUILD FOR WORKING ON THIS FIRST FOR GOOD BEER WEEK 17.

BEN EDMUNDS BREAKSIDE BREWERY

Ben is the Brewmaster at Breakside Brewery in Portland, Oregon, where his beers have won medals at the Great American Beer Festival and World Beer Cup, as well as numerous other international competitions.

Educated at the Siebel Institute and Yale University, he is a former President of the Board of Directors of the Oregon Brewers Guild and a visiting lecturer in brewing science at Lewis & Clark College.

As founding Brewmaster of Breakside, he helped grow the company from a small brewpub into a successful regional brewery.

SAM PECORARO COMMONS BREWERY

Sam began his brewing career in 2012 at Burnside Brewing Company in Portland, Oregon. Burnside focuses their efforts on American pub-style and food centric beers, using non-traditional ingredients.

In 2015, Sam moved to the Commons Brewery, right up the road from Burnside Brewing Company. The Commons team offers many European inspired farmhouse ales, German lagers, and barrel or Foudre-aged brett beers.

JACOB GRIER BEER COCKTAIL SPECIALIST

Jacob Grier is the author of Cocktails on Tap: The Art of Mixing Spirits and Beer and the founder of Aquavit Week, an annual celebration of Scandinavian spirits.

He tends bar in Portland, Oregon, most recently at Wayfinder Beer and The Multnomah Whiskey Library. His writing has appeared at The Atlantic, Reason, Mixology, Eater, and various other publications, including his own long-running weblog, Liquidity Preference (www.jacobgrier.com).

He also accepts credit and/or blame for popularising the bone luge.

RYAN SCHMIEGE DESCHUTES BREWERY

Ryan Schmiede is an Assistant Brewmaster and co-owner at Deschutes Brewery in Bend, Oregon. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Geology from the University of Wisconsin Eau Claire and a post graduate diploma in Brewing and Distillation from Heriot Watt University.

Through his 13-year career with Deschutes he's been involved with every aspect of the brewing process, including two years running the brewing operations of their Portland pub and several years managing barrel operations. His current focus is on projects on the fringes of brewing with the aim to continually improve the experiences of Deschutes' fans, while growing and strengthening the brand.

JESS GIUDICE CO-FOUNDER OF BLACKMAN'S BREWERY

HOW DID YOU FIND YOURSELF IN THE WORLD OF BEER?

I moved over to Perth with (partner) Renn while he studied brewing at uni and quickly fell in love with Freo, its amazing craft beer scene and the awesome close knit WA brewing family. I worked at The Monk on weekends, drank a lot of beer and began dreaming about one day having a brewery.

WHAT MOST EXCITES YOU ABOUT GOOD BEER WEEK?

Everything! It's a chance to spend the whole week going to epic beer events with amazing people, drinking incredibly good beers and celebrating good beer! The thing about the craft beer industry is that it's full of legends and getting everyone together for a week attending events created by these legends is just the best. It's hands down my favourite week in the year.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE STYLE OF BEER AND WHY?

Depends on the occasion, but I especially love dark beers because they are so full flavoured and delicious. There's nothing better than finishing off a day with a smooth smoked porter.

WHAT'S YOUR FONDEST BEER MEMORY?

My first Oktoberfest in Munich or maybe drinking the first Blackman's beer. Way too many to choose from!

JARED JANKOSKI GOOSE ISLAND BREWMASTER

HOW DID YOU FIND YOURSELF IN THE WORLD OF BEER? Well, drinking and a fondness for chemistry at a young age, then the global culture and history of beer became a window to view the world through. I also saw the career path as fulfilling and full of people that viewed life and work the way I did. I was never a suit and tie sort.

WHAT MOST EXCITES YOU ABOUT GOOSE ISLAND LAUNCHING IN AUSTRALIA? What doesn't excite me about this? The chance to bring Goose to Australia and share the beer we are passionate about with a country that to us seems full of people who love to enjoy life seems like a great fit! I truly hope it goes well and people enjoy it.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE STYLE OF BEER AND WHY? I could certainly say lighter hoppy beers, but pilsners are where I've been for a while now. While they have become something very approachable and widespread on a global level, the exploration of historical examples and the chance to make them with a little more depth while preserving the grace and drinkability is a challenge that can be very rewarding for a craft brewer.

WHAT'S YOUR FONDEST BEER MEMORY? Oh wow, ummmm let's see, probably drinking 17 week old lager from a tank in the cellar where I used to work. It was a great beer in absolutely perfect shape. A once in a lifetime opportunity for a commercial brewer.

ROB KABBOORD

OWNER OF MERRICOTE AND CHEF DE CUISINE AT QUAY, SYDNEY

HOW DID YOU FIND YOURSELF IN THE WORLD OF BEER?

It started in my grandmothers living room. She drank Amstel – in Amsterdam this is actually considered a good beer – then as I got to the legal age the plethora of beers just kept calling my name.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE STYLE OF BEER AND WHY?

My favourite style of beer is actually a rather rare one and not often seen in Australia, sadly. It's a beer using the méthode champenoise – a beer made like champagne. Good examples are Malheur Bière Brut and Grottenbier.

WHAT'S YOUR FONDEST BEER MEMORY?

On a trip to Europe my partner Bronwyn and I ended up in a place called Brasserie Gambinus, which had a massive drinks list. To my surprise, after a mere twenty seconds of looking at it, Bronwyn – who usually spends ages choosing a wine – pushed it my way. "Here," she said, "I think it's for you." There were only two wines listed, proceeded by nearly 500 beers. After I regained from my giddiness, I spent the rest of the night drooling over one of the most amazing beer lists I'd ever seen. We went back the next day for more!

JOHN PRESTON OWNER OF GRAIN AND GRAPE

HOW DID YOU FIND YOURSELF IN THE WORLD OF BEER?

I wandered into the Loaded Dog Pub Brewery, North Fitzroy near where I was living in 1987. I remember drinking Hacker Pschorr Weisse and being knocked out by the flavour.

WHAT MOST EXCITES YOU ABOUT GOOD BEER WEEK?

I love the events, especially the Foodie ones and System Wars but the best part really is the beer buzz around town. We feel the excitement in the shop too. Customers and friends talking about the beers and the events, what they've been up to, and catching up with people from out of town.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE STYLE OF BEER AND WHY?

My absolute favourite is Gueuze and especially Cantillon Gueuze which takes me back to a visit to the brewery in 1993 and around Europe with Michael Jackson's Pocket Guide to Beer. I love just about every style but for every day drinking probably find a West Coast IPA or a Saison hardest to refuse.

BEER SCHOOL

NO MATTER YOUR LEVEL, BEER SCHOOL HAS SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE, EVEN YOUR MUM.

Thanks to our mates from Boatrockers Brewing Co, Beer School is going bigger. Whether you're a beer rookie, know your way around an imperial stout, or are looking to take your beer knowledge even higher, Beer School at the Festival Hub at Beer DeLuxe Federation Square has got you covered.

Throughout Good Beer Week, beer experts and special guests will take you on an adventure covering everyone from cheese pairing, to barrel ageing, to sensory training sessions. There'll be masterclasses with international brewers, insights from some of Melbourne's finest chefs and producers, and a chance for everyone to discover something new.

ROOKIE

Beer style and beer history sessions, and even a Mother's Day beer tasting session to show your mum just what beer is all about.

INTERMEDIATE

Classes on pairing your beer with food or cheese matching, and chances to meet some of the leading lights of the beer industry.

ADVANCED

Dive into beer faults and sensory training, masterclasses on souring or barrel ageing, and attend classes with international beer experts.

CRAIG WESTWOOD

MOUNTAIN GOAT BREWER AND BARREL MANAGER AND GUITARIST IN THE RUINER

HOW DID YOU FIND YOURSELF IN THE WORLD OF BEER?

I picked up the home brewing bug around 2000 after developing a taste for good beer while on a band tour in Europe. Later on, I threw my hat in the ring for a trainee role at White Rabbit and snagged an interview with Jeremy Halse. During the interview we talked about music as well as beer and things seemed to click. It turned out Jeremy was a fan of a band I played in during the early 90's, called Christbait. I liked telling my mum the band she so disliked helped land me my first pro brewing gig.

WHAT MOST EXCITES YOU ABOUT GOOD BEER WEEK?

It's a punishing week with so much good shit going on that the sheer prospect of trying to get around to most of it sends the nervous system into spasmodic breakdown.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE STYLE OF BEER AND WHY?

It may sound boring, but I do tend to get a bit of a stiffy for an extremely well-crafted pilsner. It's an elegant style of beer where faults have pretty much nowhere to hide. Challenging to brew and rewarding to drink, if done right.

WHAT'S YOUR FONDEST BEER MEMORY?

That first beer you've made yourself, that you taste for the first time and realise is the tits. Commercially, being part of the Mountain Goat team that snagged the 2015 AIBA Champion Beer gong for our first ever barrel aged barley wine was quite memorable. It made use of the barrel handling knowledge I'd picked up during my time making whisky, and to have it pay off in that way was completely unexpected.

BEER
flowers that is”

The beer that inspired Little Creatures crazy journey, ours is a hop driven, full bodied and refreshing Pale Ale bursting with flavour and aroma.

Since day one, we have brewed our Pale using whole hop cones, sourced straight from the US & sent directly to our breweries (something pretty unique). We use our hop back to extract those beautiful, hoppy aromas and delicate bitterness.

Preservative and additive free, our Pale Ale is live yeast conditioned in the bottle (after filling) for unmatched freshness and character and takes about six weeks from brewing to be released.

THANKS FOR JOINING THE GOOD BEER ADVENTURE!

Creating a festival that is so full of life takes a lot of hard work and energy from a big group of people. We would like to offer our heartfelt thanks to the individuals and businesses who have helped make Good Beer Week 2017 into our biggest beer adventure yet.

Since starting out in 2011, Good Beer Week has grown from strength to strength, and we are incredibly grateful to those who support the festival in all sorts of ways, from providing financial support to keep things moving, to volunteering their time where it's needed. The Good Beer Week team is fuelled by a huge amount of passion, but that passion couldn't be channelled without your assistance.

Last but not least, we would like to thank every single attendee for making Good Beer

Week the amazing ten days that it is. Every time you drink a good beer, or visit a good beer venue, you are helping to expand the community of beer lovers here in Melbourne. If we could high five every single one of you, we would!

Here's to more good beer adventures, and see you again soon.
